Abstract

Updates for Tables 12 and 13, once again showing why Chapter 17 (“Unlucky end: On the obsolescence of products and books”) was necessary.

1 New National Holiday

Black Awareness Day (“Dia da Consciência Negra”), celebrated on 20-Nov, is (as of 22-Dec-2023) a (fixed) National Holiday. Please refer to Ofício Circular 207/2023-PRE and Ofício Circular 215/2023-PRE for more details.

So the original Table 12 on Chapter 2 (2.1.1) should now be:

Date	Holiday	CDI	PTAX
1-Jan	New Year’s Day	N	N
Floating	Shrove Monday	N	N
Floating	Shrove Tuesday	N	N
Floating	Good Friday	N	N
21-Apr	Tiradentes’ Day	N	N
1-May	Labour Day	N	N
Floating	Corpus Christi	N	N
7-Sep	Independence Day	N	N
12-Oct	Our Lady of Aparecida	N	N
2-Nov	All Souls’ Day	N	N

Table 1: Holidays (parcial)

2 BVMF (Trading) Holidays

Previously, municipal holidays in São Paulo meant no trading. But at the end of 2020 (Ofício Circular 150/2020-PRE, please read also Comunicado Externo 109/2021-VNC) it was determined that, starting in 2022, there would be trading in municipal holidays such as 25-Jan and 09-Jul).

This means that the original Table 13 on Chapter 2 (2.1.3) should now be (collapsing BVMF and CETIP into B3):

Date	Holiday	B3	CDI	PTAX
1-Jan	New Year's Day	N	N	N
25-Jan	Sao Paulo's Foundation	Y	Y	Y
Floating	Shrove Monday	N	N	N
Floating	Shrove Tuesday	N	N	N
Floating	Ash Wednesday (1/2 day)	Y	Y	Y
Floating	Good Friday	N	N	N
21-Apr	Tiradentes' Day	N	N	N
1-May	Labour Day	N	N	N
Floating	Corpus Christi	N	N	N
9-Jul	Constitutionalist Revolution	Y	Y	Y
7-Sep	Independence Day	N	N	N
12-Oct	Our Lady of Aparecida	N	N	N
2-Nov	All Souls' Day	N	N	N

20-Nov	Black Awareness Day	N	N	N
24-Dec	Christmas Eve	N	Y	Y
25-Dec	Christmas Day	N	N	N
Floating	Last Business Day of Year	N	Y	Y*

Table 2: Holidays (total)

And the only days that could be considered B3 holidays (no trading but with CDI and PTAX fixings) are 24-Dec and the Last Business Day of Year, with the caveat that every year the Central Bank publishes the rules for the PTAX on days such as Ash Wednesday and the LBDotY (e.g. Comunicado N° 41.200, 31-Jan-2024), and since 2011 this repeats the previous PTAX (used for the final settlement of the DOLF__ contract) as the PTAX of the LBDotY.
